

Day 18

questions

How can we raise money for scholarships more effectively?

Is it actually effective or China's population to abort female children?

What would happen to China if women were encouraged to have more children than fewer?

What are some other ways that we can help people more out of vicious cycles to virtuous cycles?